4.3.2 Membership

The number of members appointed to each subgroup shall be as necessary to carry out the assigned work. The size of subgroups will be limited to numbers to best serve operational needs.

4.3.3 Subgroup member selection, approval and term

- a. A candidate for appointment or reappointment as a member of the subgroup is selected by the majority vote of the subcommittee membership. Subgroup members need not necessarily be members of the Committee or subcommittee. The candidate's name is then submitted to the Chairman of the Board for consideration. All voting members of the subgroup must be appointed by the Chairman of the Board.
- b. Candidates for appointment or reappointment as subgroup chair and vice chair are selected by a majority vote of the subcommittee membership. The chair and vice chair of each subgroup shall be appointed by the NBIC Committee Chair.
- c. The subgroup secretary is selected by the Executive Director of the National Board and is a member of the subgroup without vote. In the absence of a selected secretary, the subgroup chair may appoint a voting member of the subgroup to act as secretary.
- d. The term for all voting members is for three years. Voting members are eligible for reappointment.

- e. The term for the chair or vice chair is the same as their membership expiration date and these positions are eligible for renewal.
- f. The name of a National Board Member who is a candidate to serve on a subgroup, but is not a member of the NBIC Committee or a subcommittee, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Board for approval.
- g. A candidate for membership on a subgroup must provide both a resume and a letter of support from their employer.

4.4 Task Groups

4.4.1 Responsibilities

Task groups are responsible for:

- a. developing new rules and revising existing rules for specific Code topics or paragraphs;
- b. acting on requests for interpretations of the rules for specific Code topics or paragraphs;
- c. acting on any matter related to the scope of the Code as may be assigned by committees
- d. forwarding all task group actions to the committee as appropriate.

4.4.2 Membership

The number of members appointed to each task group shall be as necessary to carry out the assigned task. The size of task groups will be limited to numbers which will best serve operational needs.

4.4.3 Task Group Member Selection, Approval and Term

- a. When the committee agrees on the need or at the discretion of the chair of a committee, a task group, members, and chair shall be appointed by the committee chair. A member of the task group may be appointed as task group secretary by the task group chair. Task group members need not necessarily be members of a committee.

- b. The name of a National Board Member who is a candidate to serve on a task group, but is not a member of the NBIC Committee or a subcommittee, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Board for approval.
- c. The task group will be dismissed once the task has been completed or at the discretion of the chair of the committee.

4.5 Interest Categories

4.5.1 NBIC Committee, subcommittee, subgroup and task group members shall not be considered as representing any specific organization. Participation by individuals employed by governmental agencies or affiliated with industry is not to be interpreted as government or industry endorsement. Membership shall be selected from the categories of interest listed below.

- a. General Interest: Individuals who are not employed by an organization characterized by b through h shall be considered General Interest.
- b. Manufacturers: Any organization accredited by ASME to hold an ASME Code symbol stamp.
- c. Authorized Inspection Agency: An authorized (insurance) inspection agency recognized by the National Board.
- d. Jurisdictional Authorities: National Board members.
- e. National Board Certificate Holders: Repair organizations accredited by the National Board to hold "R", "NR" or "VR" certification.
- f. Users: Owners or users of boilers/pressure vessels.
- g. Labor: Individuals representing labor organizations whose members are skilled workers in boiler or pressure vessel manufacturing or repairing, such as the United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry of the United States and Canada or the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Ship Builders, Blacksmiths, Forgers and Helpers.

- h. Regulatory Authorities: Representatives of US Governmental agencies who regulate boilers or pressure vessels.

4.5.2 Lack of any particular representative of any interest category at a meeting shall not preclude the committee from conducting its business when a quorum is present.

5.0 Duties of NBIC Committee, Subcommittee, Subgroup and Task Group Membership

5.1 Chair

The chair shall preside at meetings of the committee and shall perform other duties as are customarily assigned to that position.

The chair of the NBIC Committee shall make an annual review of the activity of each voting member of the NBIC Committee, subcommittee and subgroup with regard to the member's contribution to the work, attention to correspondence, and attendance at meetings. Based on this review, if a consistent lack of attendance or participation within the past year is noted, the chair may recommend to the Chairman of the Board that the member's appointment to the NBIC Committee be terminated. The chair's report of NBIC Committee member's activities shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board and the Executive Director of the National Board.

5.2 Vice Chair

The vice chair shall, in the absence of the chair, fulfill the duties of the chair.

5.3 Secretary

In addition to the responsibilities required by this procedure, the Secretary shall prepare agendas and record minutes of meetings and shall perform such other duties as are customarily assigned to such an office.

In the absence of the chair and vice chair at a meeting, the secretary shall take the chair for the purpose of receiving nominations from the members present for election of a chair pro tem, who shall then preside at the meeting.

5.4 Members

The duty of each member is to give thorough consideration to each subject brought before the committee for action, vote on acceptance or rejection of each proposal, and assist generally in carrying out the assigned functions. Such duties may be carried out by attendance at meetings, by correspondence, and by telephone.

6.0 Meetings

6.1 Scheduling Meetings

NBIC Committee meetings shall be held at the call of the Chair, as decided upon by a majority of NBIC Committee members, or as directed by the Chairman of the Board. Subcommittee, subgroup and task group meetings held at times and locations other than in conjunction with the NBIC Committee meeting, shall require the approval of the National Board Executive Director. Meeting requests shall be in writing to the Executive Director and include the subcommittee, subgroup or task group members' roster.

6.2 Locations

The NBIC Committee shall meet in National Board member jurisdictions.

6.3 Meeting Notification

All committee meeting schedules shall be posted on the National Board web site. The National Board member in whose jurisdiction the NBIC Committee is meeting shall be invited to attend the meeting.

A meeting agenda shall be made available to the members prior to the meeting and shall be subject to approval at the commencement of each meeting.

6.4 Public Meetings

Meetings at which the committee considers proposed revisions to the NBIC, reaffirmation of previously considered revisions or withdrawal of previously approved revisions shall be open to the general public. Unless matters to be discussed by the committee are deemed to be of a confidential nature by the chair, committee meetings shall be open to any interested person who shall be given an opportunity to participate in the discussions on subjects of interest to them.

6.5 Quorum

Fifty-one percent of the NBIC Committee, subcommittee or subgroup voting membership must be present to conduct committee business.

6.6 Meeting Conduct

The committee shall conduct meetings in accordance with the latest available edition of Roberts Rules of Order (Revised) unless rules to the contrary are specified in these procedures.

6.7 Recording Meeting Proceedings

Taping of committee meetings, other than by the secretary, is prohibited.

6.8 Minutes

All meetings of the NBIC Committee, subcommittees and subgroups shall be documented in minutes of the meeting. The minutes are not to be considered a verbatim record of the meeting but rather a record of the voted actions and highlights of significant discussions or conclusions.

The title page of committee minutes shall include the following statements:

“These minutes are subject to approval and are for committee use only. They are not to be duplicated or quoted for other than committee use.”

Minutes of committee meetings will be distributed to the members of the committees, the Executive Director, National Board members and Advisory Committee members, as requested. Copies of committee minutes will be made available on the National Board’s Web site for review until the next scheduled meeting minutes are available.

7.0 Voting

7.1 General

7.1.1 Each committee member shall exercise their vote within the presented time limits. When a committee member fails to report when due, or consistently abstains from voting, the committee member’s appointment shall be subject to termination. The individual may appeal such action. Committee members are encouraged to vote as soon as possible.

7.1.2 Votes for committee actions may be obtained by letter, fax, recorded votes at meetings, or electronic means. All committee members shall have an opportunity to vote. When recorded votes are taken at meetings, the committee members who are absent shall be given the opportunity to vote.

7.1.3 The vote of each committee member shall be in one of the following categories:

- ◆ Approved
- ◆ Disapproved
- ◆ Abstention
- ◆ Not voting (for possible conflict of interest)

A response of not voting signifies neither approval nor disapproval and should be executed only when the committee member believes that they have a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest and is removing themselves from the voting process.

Committee members casting disapproved responses should include an alternate action that will resolve their disapproved vote.

Committee members casting abstained responses should include a reason for the abstention.

7.1.4 Approval of committee actions shall be by a majority vote. Approval of the following actions of the NBIC Committee or subcommittee shall require two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the committee membership, excluding not voting responses or not returned ballots.:

- ◆ committee procedures and interest categories
- ◆ reaffirmation of the NBIC as an ANSI Standard
- ◆ NBIC revisions
- ◆ interpretation of the NBIC
- ◆ scope of the NBIC Committee or subcommittee

7.1.5 Voting by NBIC Committee members not present at a meeting or by letter ballot may be obtained by letter, facsimile, or by other electronic means.

7.2 Voting at Meetings

NBIC Committee members not present at a meeting for final approval of Code revisions shall be afforded the opportunity to submit their vote within two weeks after the date of the NBIC Committee meeting. It is the responsibility of this member to obtain the information relating to the item.

7.3 Voting by Letter Ballot

7.3.1 A letter ballot on any subject may be authorized by the Chair of the NBIC Committee, Chair of a subcommittee, Chairman of the Board, or a majority vote of those present and voting at a NBIC Committee or subcommittee meeting. The voting period for a letter ballot may be four (4) calendar weeks; however, in order to expedite the item, this period may be shortened to no less than two calendar weeks by the person authorizing the letter ballot. Voting periods shall be closed upon receipt of all responses, but not later than the established closing date. All letter ballots shall be coordinated by the NBIC Committee secretary.

7.3.2 At the conclusion of the letter ballot period, the NBIC Committee or subcommittee secretary shall tally the votes and report the results to the members. The secretary shall collect the comments accompanying votes and distribute these to the appropriate committee for disposition. If approved disposition is not accomplished, the item shall be placed on the agenda for the next meeting. All disapproved comments shall be reviewed by the NBIC Committee or subcommittee.

All negative voters shall be advised in writing of the disposition of their comment(s) and of their right to appeal the NBIC Committee's or subcommittee's decision.

NBIC Committee or subcommittee members shall be apprised of any unresolved comments and given two (2) weeks from notification to reconsider their original vote. If the required vote approval percentage is affirmative after this time period, the ballot shall be considered approved. Letter ballots not approved shall be placed on the agenda for the next scheduled meeting of the NBIC Committee or subcommittee.

8.0 National Board Inspection Code Publication Administration

8.1 ANSI Approval Process

The NBIC Committee is accredited by ANSI as a developer of American National Standards. The NBIC Committee, subcommittees, subgroups and task groups must conduct activities in accordance with this procedure and the current rules and procedures of ANSI.

8.1.1 Documentation

- a. After the NBIC Committee has approved the revisions to be included in the edition ~~or addendum~~, the secretary shall prepare and submit a Standards Action Public Review Request (BSR-8) form. A notice of all revisions shall be posted on the National Board's Web site for public review and comment.
- b. At the conclusion of the required comment period, the secretary shall collect all comments submitted and distribute the comments to the appropriate subcommittee.

- c. The secretary shall coordinate the disposition of public review comments.
- d. The disposition of all public review comments shall be approved by the NBIC Committee.
- e. The commenter shall be advised, in writing, of the disposition of the comment and the commentator's right to appeal the NBIC Committee's decision.
- f. All NBIC Committee members shall be notified of all unresolved comments to afford all members an opportunity to respond, reaffirm or change their vote.
- g. Resolutions involving substantive changes to approved text shall be resubmitted for public review at the next scheduled public review and comment period or a new action shall be generated to address the commentators recommended change as appropriate. No substantive changes shall be made to an approved revision unless ANSI Essential Requirements are met.
- h. When the disposition of all comments has been completed, or if no comments were submitted, the secretary shall prepare and submit the Formal Submittal Checklist for approval or withdrawal as an American National Standard (BSR-9) Form.

8.1.2 Secretariat

- a. The National Board is the secretariat for the NBIC Committee. Its duties include:
 - 1. providing administrative support for the activities of the secretary, and
 - 2. publishing and distributing the Code, ~~addenda~~, minutes, and interpretations approved in accordance with these procedures.
- b. It shall be the responsibility of the secretary to:

1. ensure that the NBIC Committee adheres to these and other referenced or applicable procedures,
2. apply to ANSI for accreditation of the NBIC Committee by that organization,
3. maintain a committee roster of the members which shall include names of the officers, and members, their address, business affiliation, category of interest, appointment expiration date,
4. comply with ANSI requirements for the NBIC Committee administration, and
5. submit proposed revisions to this procedure to ANSI for approval.

8.1.3 Internal Audits

At least once every three years, the Executive Director of the National Board shall have an audit made of the NBIC Committee's activities to ensure these procedures are followed. The audit shall be conducted by person(s) who are not members of the NBIC Committee. The audit report and follow-up action of deficiencies uncovered by an audit shall be reported to the NBIC Committee and the Chairman of the Board.

8.1.4 Patent Policy

The National Board complies with the ANSI patent policy as described in the ANSI Essential Requirements.

8.1.5 Commercial Terms

The National Board complies with the ANSI Commercial Terms and Conditions Policy as described in the ANSI Essential Requirements

8.1.6 Withdraw of an American National Standard (ANS)

When required by ANSI Essential Requirements or the National Board elects to withdraw an American National Standard, the National Board shall immediately notify ANSI for announcement in ANSI Standards Action. The National Board shall comply with all ANSI Essential Requirements for withdrawal of an American National Standard.

8.2 Revisions to the NBIC

8.2.1 Any interested person may request consideration of a revision to the NBIC by submitting such request in writing to the secretary. If deemed editorial as determined by the secretary, requests will be incorporated into the NBIC draft ~~addendum~~ edition—for distribution and public review. Comments which are editorial in nature need not be submitted to the NBIC Committee or subcommittees for consideration prior to inclusion in the edition ~~addendum~~. Any public review comments associated with these editorial comments will be handled as such and will be considered by the NBIC Committee and subcommittee at the next scheduled meetings for final approval.

Requests which are technical in nature will be forwarded to the appropriate subcommittee for consideration and recommendations made to the NBIC Committee, for their approval. Once approved, these revisions will be incorporated into the next draft. If approval is not reached, the item will be returned to the subcommittee for further action.

8.2.2 Following approval of a revision by the NBIC Committee and acceptance under ANSI procedures, the approved revision shall be published in the next ~~addendum~~ edition.

8.3 Interpretations of the NBIC

8.3.1 The NBIC Committee has the responsibility for interpreting and replying to questions concerning the application of NBIC rule or guideline. Any interested person may request, in writing, an interpretation of a rule or guideline contained in the NBIC through the NBIC Committee secretary.

8.3.2 Upon receipt of such a request the NBIC Committee secretary determines which subcommittee should develop a technical response.

When responding to questions concerning the interpretation of a rule or guideline, the following is to be used as a response:

"The NBIC was developed under procedures approved by the American National Standards Institute. The NBIC Committee that approved the NBIC and revisions thereto is a consensus NBIC Committee balanced to assure that individuals from competent and concerned interests have been afforded the opportunity to participate. Further, all proposed revisions to the NBIC are made available for public review and comment which provides an opportunity for additional input from jurisdictions, industry and the public at large."

From time to time a request for interpretation regarding a superseded edition of the NBIC may be submitted to the NBIC Committee. If in the opinion of the members of the NBIC Committee, a response can be formulated, the NBIC Committee should respond to the inquirer's question. However, when it is the consensus of the NBIC Committee that a response cannot be formulated, the NBIC Committee should respond as follows:

"The (edition of the NBIC) has been superseded. The historical knowledge that the NBIC Committee feels is needed to respond to your request for interpretation is no longer available to the NBIC Committee."

- 8.3.3 All interpretations of the NBIC shall be approved by the NBIC Committee.
- 8.3.4 All interpretations of the NBIC shall be posted on the National Board web site.
- 8.3.5 The National Board accepts responsibility for, and recognizes only those interpretations approved by the NBIC Committee.

8.4 Publications

8.4.1 NBIC

The NBIC shall be identified as "An American National Standard" and "ANSI/NB-23" in accordance with ANSI procedures.

A new edition of the NBIC shall be published every ~~three~~two years.

~~An addendum to the NBIC shall be published annually, except for those years when a new edition is published.~~

Each edition ~~and addendum~~ shall have a date of issue. The NBIC may be used beginning with the date of issue. Six (6) months after the date of issue, the edition ~~or addendum~~ becomes the requirement for compliance with NBIC.

Complimentary copies of the NBIC will be provided to the members of the NBIC Committee and subcommittees.

8.4.2 Forms

National Board forms are part of the standard and follow the same requirements for revision as outlined in this procedure.

8.5 General

8.5.1 Referencing Other Standards

When the NBIC Committee wishes to reference another code or standard, the date of the specific, referenced code or standard shall not be cited unless required.

8.5.2 Copyrights

Copyright and all rights in all materials produced by the committee are owned by the National Board.

9.0 Due Process

The National Board provides due process for the impartial handling of complaints regarding procedural or technical issues for any action or inaction. As part of this due process there are several levels to which an aggrieved party may appeal. This section gives criteria regarding right to appeal, how appeals are made and what may be appealed.

At any level of the appeal process, there shall be no informal discussions between the body hearing the appeal and representatives of the appellant.

Persons who have directly and materially affected interests and who have been or will be adversely affected by any procedural or technical action or inaction with regard to the development of a proposed American National Standard or the revision, reaffirmation or withdrawal of the NBIC have the right to appeal. Appeals shall be addressed promptly and a decision made expeditiously. The following process shall be followed:

- a. Any person aggrieved by an interpretation, disposition of comments, procedural or technical issues may appeal to the NBIC Committee.
- b. The aggrieved person shall first request reconsideration by the NBIC Committee. Such request shall be in writing, addressed to the NBIC Committee secretary, and shall state the reasons for requesting reconsideration.
- c. Should the person remain aggrieved following such reconsideration by the NBIC Committee or should such reconsideration be denied, the aggrieved person then, in writing, addressed to the National Board's Executive Director, may request review by the National Board Appeals Committee.

The findings of the National Board Appeals Committee operating under their procedures, shall be binding on the NBIC Committee as to the specific item under appeal and it shall be incumbent upon the NBIC Committee to consider incorporating the National Board Appeals Committee findings.

- d. Should the person remain aggrieved following the National Board Appeals Committee's decision, further appeal may be taken to the Board. Such appeal is initiated by a written request, addressed to the National Board's Executive Director setting forth the grounds for such appeal. The appeal shall be heard at the next regular or special meeting of the Board which is held at a time of sufficient duration following such request as to allow distribution of all relevant documents and materials to the Board members. The Board, upon considering such appeal, by affirmative majority vote of those present, may allow a variance, may direct the NBIC Committee to consider a revision, or may sustain the action of the National Board Appeals Committee. The decision of the Board of Trustees on such appeal shall be final.

10.0 Records

Records shall be retained as identified in Table 1.
